

Gala for Parkinson's raises $58,000

VAUGHAN, MAY 22, 2017 — The Serata di Gala - Gala Evening for Parkinson's hosted by Mr. Peter Cipriano, CEO Goldpark Group on May 20, 2017 was a tremendous success for the beneficiary Parkinson Canada.

Over 500 participants that included Mr. Vincent Crisanti, Deputy Mayor of Toronto, Mr. John Sprovieri, Peel Regional Councillor and Councillor City of Brampton, and celebrity chef David Rocco were at hand to show support for those living with parkinson's.

Guests were served an Italian-style dinner at Da Vinci Banquet Hall in Vaughan with lively music by the EYE Q Band for entertainment and dancing. A silent auction with AFGI enticed many guests to splurge, further benefiting Parkinson Canada.

Notable contributors to the event include the Guardia dei Lombardi Social Club with a $5,000 donation, and Cassavia Estate Homes.

It was a very special evening for Mr. Pietro Montemarano who was acclaimed by Mr. Peter Cipriano and peers for his decades of volunteer work and for being an inspiration to those living with Parkinson's.

Mr. Peter Cipriano donated $10,000 in the evening to help generate $58,000 for Parkinson Canada and Canadians living with Parkinson's. It was a gala night that exceeded the expectations of many.

Pietro Montemarano and Peter Cipriano.

Beverly Crandell, VP Integration & Shared Services (L) and Daphne Fitzgerald, Board Chair (R), Parkinson Canada with Peter Cipriano.

The Gala Committee (from left: Don Parente, Pietro Montemarano, Dureen Tseu, Chair Peter Cipriano, and Gerald Borean on far right) with Parkinson Canada officials Daphne Fitzgerald and Beverly Crandell.