

Privacy Policy

Goldpark Group is committed to protecting your privacy whether you are browsing for information or conducting business with us through electronic channels.

When you visit our website, we will not collect your personal information unless you choose to use and receive online products and services that require it. You may choose to provide us with personal information such as your name, address, phone number, and e-mail address, if you wish to submit an e-mail, comment, question or request or subscribe for information or registration.

Goldpark Group does not sell or trade any of the information accumulated through the course of business about subscribers, registrants, web visitors, clients or other contacts to any third parties.

To improve your online visit experience with us, we may use web analytics services such as Google Analytics to help analyse the use of our website. These tools use cookies¹ to automatically collect standard information² for traffic monitoring and statistical purposes. The information is analyzed for operational trends, performance, and for ways to improve our site. We cannot identify you from this information.

¹ A cookie is a small text file sent from a Web server and placed on your computer's hard drive. You can choose to set your browser to detect and reject cookies, to accept cookies from all sites, or to prompt you whenever a site wants to send you a cookie. You can opt-out of analytics activity by setting your browser to notify you when a cookie is sent and block analytics cookies. If you choose to refuse cookies, you may not be able to access some of the interactive features that may be on a website.

² Standard types of information collected are:

- Internet Protocol (IP) addresses of the computers being used to access our site
- operating systems and the types and versions of browsers used to access our site
- Internet Service Providers used by visitors to our site
- dates and times users access our site
